

Outstanding Young Virginians

Recognition Program

Community
Action Leadership

The Virginia Junior Chamber (Jaycees) are a statewide group of young professionals ages 18 to 40 from every walk of life working to better themselves and their community through community service and professional development.

Each year the Virginia Jaycees honor select young people making outstanding contributions to their community through the Outstanding Young Virginian Program.

The Virginia Jaycees are seeking businesses who wish to support this deserving event.
